SPOLETO

The Marmore Falls, praised for centuries for its beauty, seems like a roaring water column on three jumps. Wrapping the flora in a cloud of white foam, covering a vertical drop of 165 meters. The scenario revealed to the visitor is the result of over two thousand years of work by the man who, from Roman times, has tried to channel the waters of the river Velino plunge them into the Nera river.

Guided tour with speleological guides through the paths and the paths of Marmore.
